IN THE WASHINGTON DC AREA

The Washington Post Magazine

SHADOAN, MICHAEL & WELLS LLP

The three partners of Shadoan, Michael & Wells, LLP — George Shadoan, Robert Michael and Gregory Wells — form one of the most highly regarded plaintiff's personal injury law firms, both in the metropolitan Washington, DC area and nationally. The firm is known for its work on behalf of seriously and catastrophically injured people. In addition to being chosen for recognition in the peer-reviewed book, "The Best Lawyers in America®," each has been recognized for their expertise, commitment, and success by the most prestigious peer-reviewed trial lawyers' organizations in the country.

"Many of our clients have suffered devastating losses through no fault of their own, but face a legal system that often seems stacked against them."

MULTIPLE MEMBERS OF THIS FIRM are Fellows of the American College of Trial Lawyers, limited to the top 1 percent of the lawyers in each state, and the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, limited to 500 Fellows in the U.S. This firm is one of only three in the entire country with multiple attorneys chosen for membership in the Inner Circle of Advocates, an organization of courtroom warriors that limits its membership to 100 of the best personal injury lawyers in the nation who have demonstrated their expertise by achieving multiple million-dollar verdicts for their clients.

THE ATTORNEYS AT SHADOAN, MICHAEL & WELLS pride themselves on being champions for seriously injured individuals. "We still represent people, not institutions," says George Shadoan, who has been listed in every edition of "Best Lawyers®." "Many of our clients have suffered devastating losses through no fault of their own, but face a legal system that often seems stacked against them even though it is the only place to which they can turn for relief."

BOB MICHAEL ADDS: "When we, through hard work, courage, and yes, some luck, are able to make the system work for seriously injured people, the personal reward we receive is greater than any measured by money — no matter how large the verdict."

"WE ARE ALSO VERY MUCH COMMITTED to making a real difference in our communities and giving back as well," says Gregory Wells, recently named to the "Best Lawyers®" list. "We are very proud of the fact that we helped victims of the 9/11 tragedies free of charge with our expertise." Bob Michael obtained one of the largest awards for any of the 9/11 victims.

EXPERTISE INDEED: these lawyers combine 100 years of experience, hard work and dedication to the highest principles of the legal profession to achieve the notable successes each has had for their clients and their communities. And, they're nice people to know!
